Designed by Georg Riedel, this innovative series is a symbolic shift in aesthetic for the RIEDEL brand, moving away from his father's original Sommeliers series shapes, and towards a new era of purposeful glassware.

Flat-bottomed and reminiscent of an aircraft wing, complete with winglets, the flat and stretched bottom with a wing-like shape increases the surface area of the wine, exposing it to oxygen. This leads to greater levels of evaporation and enables a greater intensity of aroma, while the top portion of the vessel works to deliver the wine to your palate in such a way as to enhance the flavors of the glasses namesake grape variety.

The Riedel Winewings collection consists of 7 shapes: Cabernet/Merlot, Pinot Noir/Nebbiolo, Syrah, Champagne Wine Glass, Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Chardonnay.
